BULGARIA TOP GOLD TEAMS

The 20th HCL INTERNATIONAL BRIDGE CHAMPIONSHIP, 2023 commenced yesterday, 31st October 2023, at the Leela Ambience Convention Hotel in Delhi. A total of 52 teams are taking part in the Gold Teams and 93 in Silver. At the end of the first five rounds of the Swiss league that were played on day one, Team Bulgaria consisting of Jerry Stomatov, Julian Stefanov, Ivan Naney, and Vladimir Mihov topped the Gold Teams with a VP total of 74.16. Joyjits Army with 74.14 VPs is close on their heels. The next six teams are Azs Buboslavia, DKI Red, Mavericks All Stars, DKI Blue, Poland, and Rampage. Two strong teams from India - Formidables and Mavericks are placed in the 18th and 22nd position respectively. <https://hclbridge-results.com/2023/goldteams>

Vrinda Jhunjhunwala and Nirmal Jain

Unity are at the second position with a score of 73.49 VPs, a good 14 VPs less than the top team. The next six teams are EISK, PALS, Mahakal, Team Vibrant, Gladiators, and ICSA coolers.

Last five rounds will be played today. At the end of 10 rounds, top 16 teams in each section will qualify for the Knock out stage that will commence tomorrow. There will be a carryover, up to a maximum of 14, for the KO matches as per the SCoC. First elimination of Match-Point Pairs will also be played tomorrow.

A 4-member team consisting of three ladies – Kalpana Gurjar, Vidhya Patel, Vrinda Jhunjhunwala, and Nirmal Jain are leading in the Silver Teams section with a whopping score of 87.51 VPs. Both Kalpana and Vidhya were part of the Indian Ladies team at the World Championships in Marrakech. They were also part of the Indian Open Juniors U26 team at Veldhoven, Netherlands. A 1♥ Contract And A One Suit-squeeze South opens 1♥ in the third seat and the bidding goes PPP. Can the board be of interest at all? The answer is negative in many cases, but Board 5 of the first Round produced a positive answer to that question. In fact, the first six boards of that round were such that the bidding was almost the same, or similarly straightforward on most tables. The play in a few of them offered some interesting twists.

On Vugraph today for the first session were the Mavericks All Stars playing against the Kista team. Kista is a star himself having won countless events on the Indian National circuit and won the silver medal in the Seniors Section in the World championships of 2022. The tussle between two All Star Defenders Ola and Mikael Rimsted and Kista as Declarer was what I was looking for. Deal 5 provided that opportunity.

Lead ♣K

In one room, after the ♣K lead and the ♥AK of Hearts at trick two and three, Boje Brogeland tabled the ♦Q. The contract was now secure even against a 5-2 trump break as was the case. West was endplayed with the ♦K as he held no more Diamond card. West played the ♠K. Winning with ♠A, Boje now played a trump. West could take all his trumps but was endplayed again. EW could take the ♣Q and just one more trick.

In the other room, after the same opening lead, Kista won the ♣A and played the ♥AK West contributing ♥3 and ♥2 in that sequence and East playing ♥9 and ♥J. Kista now played another Heart. West now had three trumps to cash. Ola won the fourth trick with 7 and played the ♦K first.

When it won, he cashed two more trumps. Kista let go all the Spades from the Dummy. On the last three trumps, Mikael discarded the ♦3, and then the ♣5 and ♣8.

This was the situation with six cards left in each hand.

If West now exits with a Spade, either after cashing ♣Q or without cashing ♣Q, South will win and play the ♦Q forcing East to duck. South will then play ♠A and back to endplay West yet again and use him as a stepping stone to Dummy's Club trick. Does that mean there is no defence?

Before answering that question, let us look at what happened at the table. Ola cashed the ♣Q and Kista discarded a Spade from the Closed hand. Ola now exited with the ♠K. Kista won ♠A discarding a Club from Dummy and played the ♦Q which East ducked. Now, Kista had a choice of plays and he had to guess the location of the ♠J, not the easiest of tasks at any time. If West held it, Kista would have to cash ♠Q and play a Spade using West as a stepping stone to Dummy's Club winner. If East held it, Kista could endplay him with a Diamond. Kista guessed wrong and went one down.

And now for the answer of our question. Well, we haven't yet looked at West playing the ♣2. South will have to win in Dummy with the ♣J because East still holds the ♣9. South cannot now continue Clubs lest he lose two more Clubs and the ♦Ace or one more Spade depending on what he discards on Clubs. What happens if South plays the ♦J from the Dummy? East plays the ♦A and South is squeezed in one suit in the following situation.

If South plays the ♦7, East will push a Spade and South will lose two more tricks to West, ♣Q, and ♠K. If South throws ♦Q, East will play a Diamond endplaying Dummy forcing a play away from ♣J6. South was squeezed in one suit! You don't encounter one-suit squeezes every day, you don't come across such situations even for years. But of course, yesterday was not every day, nor every year, yesterday was the first day of the HCL International Bridge Tournament, 2023 edition, so even the rare one-suit squeeze had to grace the occasion.

Mavericks All Stars vs. Poland, Round 3

In round 3, Mavericks All Stars were pitted against a strong Poland team. The fireworks began from the first board itself. Zia and Helgemo lost two big penalties.

In the Open Room, Bakke, sitting North, opened 1Nt and South responded 3♥ to show a short suit. Holding AJxx, Bakke seems to have taken an unusual step of crossing 3Nt, possibly because he held three Aces, when he chose to rebid 4♦. At this point, they have not yet identified a suit fit. Boje Brogeland rebid 5♣. Bakke was not happy with that so he converted to 5♦ and they ended up playing in a 4-3 fit. 5♦ contract went down three.

In the Closed Room, North opened 1Nt and Helgemo chose to overcall 2♥ with an uninspiring 2524 shape and eight HCP. South doubled for take out and Zia, with a near-balanced shape and 542 of Hearts, chose to raise to 3♥. When the bidding reverted to South after two passes, South doubled again. With AJ76 in Hearts, North was happy to pass the double.

South led his stiff Heart and North ducked. Declarer played a small Diamond from the hand to Dummy's King. South contributed the ♦6 showing count and North ducked. Helgemo now ran the ♠J to South's Queen. Janiszewski won and played a Club. North cashed ♣AQ and the two red suit Aces, and played a Spade. South won and played a High Club ruffed in the Dummy and overruffed by North. Declarer had one more Club to lose so the defenders made 8 tricks. Down four non-vulnerable was 800 to Poland. They gained 15 IMPs on the board.

The next board had even better score in store for the Poland NS.

In the Open Room, the bidding was uneventful. Boje Brogeland played in 4♠ making 11 tricks for a score of +450. In the Open Room, Helgemo's double of 3♥ added spice to the offering.

West	North	East	South

		1♥	1♠
P	3♥	X (?)	4♠
4N (minors)	P	5♣	X
P	P	P

What should be the meaning of that double? A strong hand takeout of Spade suit is what comes to mind first. That is what Zia thought it would be but Helgemo just had a long Heart suit and a not-too strong hand in terms of High Card strength. When South bid 4♠, Zia, with 4-5 in minors, bid 4Nt. Helgemo bid 5♣ and Janiszewski doubled. Helgemo could have run to 5♥ to save the day but he passed. ♣5 doubled went down five for a score of 1400. That was 14 more IMPs to Poland.

Mavericks All Stars lost five more IMPs on board 27 but pulled back some in last three boards so the final score was 34-19 IMPs converting to 14.8-5.2 VPs for Poland.

A Six Club Slam And Two Polish Club Attempts

Deal 15 of the fifth round was a small slam in Clubs for North-South with 19 opposite 10 HCP. Two teams playing Polish Club were pitted against each other. It was Poland vs Azs Buboslovakia team. The bidding began on similar note but deviated a little on the third Round. Let us have a look at both the auctions.

North intended the 4♠ bid to show shortness but South was not exactly on the same page. In the end, North didn't think he had enough to bid a slam all by himself so he signed off in 5♣.

In the Other room, the bidding was identical up to the 3♥ bid. South now crossed 3N himself, bidding 4♣. North showed Spade control, first or second round, with a 4♠ bid. When that was doubled, North rebid 4N suggesting that he did not have two fast Spade losers. That was enough for South to bid 6♣.
